1. competition dates, deadlines, & fees

IMPORTANT DATES

Accepting Entries: September 1, 2017

Deadline December 31 2017

Rush fees begin: January 1, 2018 (15% surcharge added to entry fee total).

ENTRY FEES

Single or Campaign: $845 USD

A separate fee applies to each category selection. If you are submitting multiple entries, send only one payment for the total amount of all entry fees. Your shipping costs, insurance, customs duties, and bank transfer fees are your responsibility. There are no media handling fees, sales tax, or VAT taxes.

All entry fees must be paid in full before entries are processed and prepared for judging.

PAYING BY CREDIT CARD PREFERRED PAYMENT TYPE

Visa, MasterCard, and American Express cards are accepted. An additional fee of 3% of your total order will be added to your invoice for all transactions completed with Visa or MasterCard; an additional fee of 3.2% applies to transactions completed with American Express.

PAYING BY BANK TRANSFER

You are responsible for all transfer fees levied by your bank. An additional fee of $35 USD will be added to your invoice to cover our intermediary transfer fees.

You must include your invoice number on the wire transfer. It is the easiest way for our accounting department to successfully match your payment to your entry. All invoices must be paid in full before entries are processed and prepared for judging.

REFUNDS

Refunds of entry fees will only be granted if a request is made within 14 days of submitting entries. A $100 fee will be charged to cover administrative costs. No refunds will be made once judging begins, but entries can be withdrawn from the judging by written request.

2. eligibility

All entries must be executed between October 1, 2016 and December 31, 2017. You may not enter a campaign that has been entered in past AME Awards, even if it did not achieve award status.

3. judging

THE JURY

The AME Awards International Grand Jury consists of top interactive and multidisciplinary marketers, media planners, strategy directors, social media experts, and creatives who donate their time and expertise to the competition

THE JUDGING PROCESS

Entries are judged in three rounds against high standards of creative execution and marketing effectiveness. Creative executions, details from the written marketing brief, and the overall presentation of the work are taken into consideration; outside sources for evidence of results is of key importance.

ROUND 1: THE SHORTLIST

Judges review entries from within their own regions and score each based on its own merit, not in comparison to other entries. This round determines the Shortlist.

ROUND 2: THE MEDALS & GREEN AWARD

All Shortlist entries are scored again, also by region and based on their own merits. This round determines the Bronze, Silver, and Gold winners for each region; the AME Green Award is presented to the highest scoring Gold-winning campaign that represents the ideals of resource conservation, ecology and/or the reduction of negative impacts to the environment.

ROUND 3: THE PLATINUMS & GRAND AWARD

All Gold-winning work is scored by all judges in all regions. A Platinum Award is presented to the top-scoring entry in each region, regardless of category.

Note: An entry must win a Gold medal to qualify for a Platinum Award. If there are no Gold-winning entries in a particular region, no Platinum Award will be awarded for that region. The Grand AME Award will be presented to the campaign that earns the highest score across all regions in this round

THE REGIONS

- NORTH AMERICA
- LATIN AMERICA
- EUROPE
- ASIA PACIFIC
- MIDDLE EAST & AFRICA

Note: If there are not enough entries received from a particular region to merit a full judging session, those entries will be added to the judging session for the nearest region.

4. scoring

Judges are asked to evaluate each entry based on 4 specific criteria, each weighted according to importance:

- Results & Effectiveness - 30%
- Idea - 25%
- Execution - 25%
- Challenge/Strategy/Objectives - 20%

5. submission of entries

All entries must be submitted through the online entry system found on ameawards.com.

Offline paper entry forms are not accepted.

You must have an AME Awards account to enter. To begin, create an account or log in to your existing account.

To prevent possible data loss, you must be logged in before beginning the online entry process! Once you are logged in and have provided basic information for your entry, you will be able to select categories from the menu and proceed as directed.

You may submit a single piece or campaign into multiple categories without filling out separate entry forms. Simply click the box next to each category you wish the entry to be considered. Please note that a separate entry fee is applicable for each category.

Review all of your entry data/information before submitting and proceeding to checkout. A printable record of the total for all your entries, including an invoice for the total amount due will be automatically generated at checkout and emailed to you.

The entry process is divided into 6 stages:

1. cover page
2. case brief
3. category selection
4. supporting materials
5. credits
6. review & checkout (in 4 parts)

A few helpful tips as you go through the process:

- You can navigate through the 6 different steps of the entry form with the banner at the top.
- Click "save & continue" to proceed to the next step.
- Click "save & finish later" to continue at a later time. Your unfinished entry will be in your cart when you log back in.
- All fields throughout the form are required unless otherwise indicated.
- There's a lot of helpful info in the Rules & Regulations; we recommend reading through it before you start.

The AME Awards continues to uphold the highest standards for entry integrity and has long been aware of so-called “scam campaigns”—campaigns that were either never published or were published without the full knowledge and consent of the client. Our Scamguard system requires jury members to flag suspicious campaigns and include comments in support of their doubt of its authenticity. Every flagged entry will be investigated; should the evidence prove the campaign to be a scam it will be disqualified, and the entering company will be barred from entering our competitions for a period of three years.

step 1: cover page

Tell us the basics about your campaign. All fields are required unless otherwise indicated.

- entry title
- brand name
- product/service type
- advertiser
- advertising agency
- country of entry
- creative director
- creative director email

step 2: case brief

This is where you get into the details of your entry—everything from the nuts and bolts to the grand plans and glorious results.

As per the jury’s request, your long-form answers should be no more than 150 words. Be clear and concise, think about what a judge really needs to know to score your entry fairly, and include independent sources for your results. All fields are required unless otherwise indicated.

would you like to keep the contents of this case brief confidential?

Our Winners Showcase at ameawards.com features our winners’ support materials and campaign summaries.

We are also pleased to announce a content partnership with WARC, an online service offering advertising best practice, evidence and insights from the world’s leading brands. WARC helps clients grow their businesses by using proven approaches to maximize advertising effectiveness. WARC’s clients include the world’s largest advertising and media agencies, research companies, universities and advertisers. In addition to its own content, WARC features advertising case studies and best practices from more than 50 respected industry sources, including: The Advertising Research Foundation, Cannes Lions, Effie Worldwide, Association of National Advertisers, ESOMAR, 4A’s, The IPA and DMA.

Founded in 1985, WARC is privately owned and has offices in the UK, US and Singapore.

Please indicate whether we may publish these parts of your entry should your campaign achieve winner status. If you select “No,” these items will only be seen by competition staff and judges.

Should you wish to be listed on either our Winners Showcase or with WARC, you may submit edited support materials to conform to your confidentiality standards.

- $100,000-$1 million
- $1-5 million
- $5-10 million
- $10-25 million

campaign scope

If your campaign is international, indicate whether it's in a standardized format (meaning the executions did not change when the campaign crossed national boundaries, except for perhaps language) or an international core campaign (meaning the campaign was based on a set of core concepts and adapted to different demographic and cultural groups).

campaign summary

Tell us about the campaign, including important aspects considered in its conception, and its accomplishments. If your entry earns a place on the AME Awards Shortlist, this summary will be used in the Winners Showcase, so do not include any confidential information.

campaign goals

Briefly outline the objectives your campaign was created to meet.

marketing context

Specify the language, cultural, and political sensitivities considered as well as market conditions for this product or service. For international campaigns, indicate how cultural variations impacted the marketing and communication strategies. Be clear about the place in the life cycle of this campaign, product or service occupied within its marketplace. Indicate if this is a first-time campaign, an adjustment to an existing campaign, or an addition to a previous campaign.

target audience

Be specific: age, gender, religion, national, and ethnic groupings. Be sure to include why you chose those audiences.

campaign planning

Describe the thoughts, ideas, and disciplines used as you mapped out the marketing and communication strategy of your campaign.

marketing & media strategy

Specify the language, cultural, and political sensitivities considered as well as market conditions for this product or service. For international campaigns, indicate how cultural variations impacted the marketing and communication strategies. Be clear about the place in the life cycle of this campaign, product or service and indicate if this is a first-time campaign, an adjustment to an existing campaign, or an addition to a previous campaign.

creative executional strategy

Explain the creative approach taken in crafting the various executions. What insights or understandings of the market or the brand led you to approach your objectives with this strategy for your target audience? What was the specific impression or image you desired for the execution?

evidence of results

Clearly state the campaign's accomplishments and describe the most impressive results in terms of the set objectives. Be specific in tying the results to these objectives, as well as to your strategies (marketing and communications, media, and creative) and targets. Indicate the effect of the media choice, if any, on the intended results. Tell us what you would do again, what you wouldn't, and why.

This section is very important to the judges, and an area they repeatedly cite as lacking. Provide brief but convincing documentation, citing independent evidence wherever possible. You may index your evidence of sales results, if you wish. Note that by submitting your entry form, you are asserting that all reported results are accurate and verifiable.

other awards (optional)

In what other competitions has this campaign earned awards?

step 3: category selection

You may enter this campaign into more than one category using this one form. A separate entry fee for each category is required. Select all categories in which you wish to enter this campaign. See section 6, categories for a full list.

step 4: support materials

We recommend uploading all supporting material for your entry directly to our server, except for collateral entries as noted in section 9, "Technical Guidelines." Files larger than 1 gig can be uploaded to our server. You have 2 choices for uploading your support material:

1. You can upload your pieces from within the entry process at the end of Step 1.
2. You can wait until after checkout, and add your pieces later using the upload link you'll get with your invoice.

Both methods will upload the supporting material for your entry directly to our server.

You may enter up to 6 pieces in support of your entry—a case video (strongly recommended), PDFs of print executions, commercial spots, media coverage, whatever you have that will help the judges better understand your campaign and its effectiveness. If your support materials were in a language other than English, a translation is required. A transcript in English of all audio files is required, regardless of the original language.

If you are submitting a case video, please include it as Piece #1.

Hint: If you really feel strongly that the judges need to see more than 6 executions from your campaign, try bundling the same types of material together—for example, put all print ads in 1 PDF, and that will count as 1 piece; 2, 30-second spots in the same .mov will count as 1 piece.

Please see section 9, Submission of Entry & Technical Guidelines, for important information about formats and uploading your support materials.

step 5: assign credits

We recognize the amount of work that must be done when entering awards competitions, and that entering your credits along with preparing the creative for submission can be very time consuming and frustrating. To alleviate some of the workload, you are not required to provide additional credit information as part of the entry process. Only entries that reach Shortlist status will be required to enter additional information (names and titles of the people and or companies associated with the creation of the work) so that the entire team can be recognized on the web, in publications, in press releases, on our website, and in our showcasing venues. Please see section 10, Credits, for formatting guidelines and more information.

step 6: review & checkout (in 4 parts)

We must receive payment information within 7 business days following the completion of your online entry, otherwise the entries may be withdrawn from the competition.

part I

Please review your entry carefully. If you find any errors, you can make edits here.

part II

Here you'll see each of your entries with subtotals and a grand total. You can edit or delete entries from here.

part III

Please give us your billing and payment information. If paying by check, please make it payable to INTERNATIONAL AWARDS GROUP, LLC.

part IV

Please confirm your order. Once you click "confirm & process your order," you'll see a printable version of your invoice, a copy of which will also be automatically sent to your email.

6. categories

You may enter the same item or campaign in more than one category, however a separate fee is applicable for each category selection. While you may enter the same campaign into several categories with one form, a separate form must be filled out for each individual campaign. A printable record with a total of all entries will be automatically generated at checkout and emailed to you.

By granting this license the entrant is the exclusive owner of the submission or, if the submission contains material which is owned by a third party, has obtained permission from the copyright owner(s) to grant this license. The entrant also warrants and represents that the entry does not contain anything which is libelous, unlawful, offensive, harmful, or infringes the rights of others, or that is a breach of any duty of confidentiality.

By entering, you also agree to hold International Awards Group, LLC and AME Awards and any of its affiliated companies exempt from any costs or expenses of any claim arising out of such use.

Entries and materials submitted will not be returned unless requested in writing before submission.

8. awards

Winners will receive one award per entry (either a trophy or a certificate, depending on the final status the entry earns) with credits as detailed in Section 10. Additional trophies are available at the AME Awards Store and can include personalization to recognize the contributions of individuals involved with the entry.

Winners will be announced in late February, 2017. Press releases will be sent to international wire services and to the international, regional and local advertising trades. All winners will be published on our website and promoted via our media partners, as well as our international representatives, in their publications, press releases and live events.

9. submission of entry & technical guidelines

We recommend uploading all supporting material for your entry directly to our server, except for collateral entries as noted. Files smaller than 1 gigabyte can be uploaded to our server (details below).

You have two choices for uploading your support material:

1. You can upload your pieces from within the entry process at the end of Step 1.
2. You can wait until after you checkout, and add your pieces later using the upload link included on your invoice.

If your file is over 1 gig you may contact us for an alternate upload link, see tech requirements below.

Both methods will upload the supporting material for your entry directly to our server.

All submitted URLs must be active from the time you submit your entry at least through March 2017, and permanently if your work earns an award. If you do not wish to keep the URL live, please submit original files for showcasing.

When entering a website, please consider including a walk-through video (see specs above) of your site so the judges are sure to see the work you are most interested in showing. This is strongly suggested, but not required.
